KNIGHTED BY A KING

Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, who has Just been knighted by King Edward VII. in honor of the official royal birthday, is generally conceded to Study and Prevention of Taberculonia be the greatest of living English idaywrights. He says that churches, schools, labor began his career as a lawyer, but when clients unions, women's clubs, fraternal orfalled to recognize their opportunity he gave up gantiations and state legislatures, in his profession and became an actor. Thence toroning fully 8,000,000 people, are it was a short step to play-making and the cue all allied in the campaign against tucesa in this work has been pronounced almost from the outset.

The Pinere plays are of infinite variety, but his greatest popular successes have been his lighter works, such as "Sweet Lavender," "Fre-lawney of the Wells," "The Amazons" and "Princess and the Butterfly." Perhaps his real reputation as a play-writer may be said to rest upon that rather remarkable series of social studies which began with "The Second Mrs. Tanquerny" and continued with "The Noterious Mrs. Ebbsmith," "The Gay Lord Quex," "Iris" and "Letty," His latest big success was "His House in Order" - He is of English birth and descent, in spite of his odd name

MINISTER FROM SPAIN

The Marquis of Villalobar, who succeeds Don Ramon Pina as minister to the United States from Spain, has been secretary of the Spanish ombassy in London for several years and is a great favorite of King Edward VII. He is highly accomplished and it is expected that he will be a valuable addition to the social life of the national capital. The marquis is 42 years old, is handsome, a bachelor and the possessor of one of the oldest and noblest names in Spain. The marquis is not unknown in Washington, for he spent a year there as attache at the ministry in 1887 and another year as second secretary in 1895. For the last 10 years he has been first secretary at the embassy in London. He also served as a diplomat in Paris before going to London. His recreations are painting and the study of literature and history and he belongs to several of the most exclusive clubs of London. He is a chamberlain to King Alfonso, whose close per sonal friend he is, and he is a grandson of the Duke de Rivas, one of Spain's most famous poets. He possesses decorations from several European gov-
